

Words of Gratitude from Oksana Lypska...

When Allen Wight and I informed Oksana that First Presbyterian Church wanted to pay her rent for three months, she was very surprised and happy. Soon thereafter, she sent us this thank you note.

A handwritten note on a grid background. The text is written in cursive and reads: "Hello! I would like to say a huge thank you! Thanks to your prayers, support, the participation of many kind people, I already go to work, we have a small house, Maxim goes to school, which he really likes. There are still a lot of unfinished business, but we are already truly living! And every time it's so nice to come home... Immensely grateful to you Alisa, Maxim and Oksana Lypsky".

Hello!

I would like to say a huge thank you! Thanks to your prayers, support, the participation of many kind people, I already go to work, we have a small house, Maxim goes to school, which he really likes. There are still a lot of unfinished business, but we are already truly living! And every time it's so nice to come home...

Immensely grateful to you Alisa, Maxim and Oksana Lypsky

Nearly every time I communicate with her, she tells me how grateful she is and that I have no idea what a huge help First Presbyterian Church is to her. She is working full time now at The Blake (6am-2:30pm), plus continuing her English lessons and on-road driver training in her "spare" time! Thanks for your many prayers and generous support for Oksana and her children.
Respectfully, Bob Stoots
